

ZPP Monthly Monitor

May 2014 HR Violations Map

BACKGROUND & FORMATION

The Zimbabwe Peace Project (ZPP) was conceived shortly after 2000 by a group of Churches and NGOs working or interested in human rights and peace-building initiatives, and was to become a vehicle for civic interventions in a time of political crisis. In particular ZPP sought to monitor and document incidents of human rights violations and politically motivated breaches of the peace e.g. violence.

Today, ZPP's co-operating member organizations include, Zimbabwe Council of Churches (ZCC), Catholic Commission for Justice & Peace in Zimbabwe (CCJPZ), Evangelical fellowship of Zimbabwe (EFZ) Zimbabwe Election Support Network (ZESN), Counselling Services Unit (CSU), Zimbabwe Civic Education Trust (ZIMCET), Zimbabwe Lawyers for Human Rights (ZLHR), Zimbabwe Human Rights Association (ZIMRIGHTS), Civic Education Network Trust (CIVNET), Women's Coalition of Zimbabwe (WCoZ) and the Habakkuk Trust.

VISION

Sustainable Justice, Freedom, Peace and Development in Zimbabwe, for All

MISSION

To work for sustainable Peace through Monitoring, Documentation, Research & Publications, and Community Peace Building Interventions ~ through & with our Members & Partners

METHODOLOGY

This report is based on reports from ZPP long-term community based human rights monitors who observe, monitor and record cases of human rights violations in the constituencies they reside. ZPP deploys a total of 420 community-based primary peace monitors (two per each of the 210 electoral constituencies of Zimbabwe). These community-based monitors reside in the constituencies they monitor. They compile reports that are handed over to ZPP provincial coordinators who man the different ZPP offices in the ten administrative provinces of Zimbabwe. Upon receipt and verifications of the reports from the monitors, the provincial coordinators compile provincial monthly monitoring reports, which are then consolidated at national office into the ZPP monthly monitoring reports published in retrospect.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The country is experiencing a general calm atmosphere with a few incidents of political and civil human rights violations being reported. Cases of harassment, intimidation, assaults, displacement and discrimination are commonly reported and are indicative of the political intolerance that characterizes the Zimbabwean politics. In the month of May, there was an increase in the prevalence cases of harassment; 157 compared to 139 cases reported in the previous month. These figures reflect the increase in the total number violations recorded in the same month; 217 compared to 181 reported in the month of April.

Reports of food violations have significantly gone down. Only three provinces reported isolated cases of denied food relief based on one's political affiliation. The low records on food violations could be attributed to the good harvest recorded throughout the country. Very few areas are in dire need of food assistance Drought prone areas such as Chivi, Mwenezi and Chiredzi and areas affected by the floods are some of the few areas in need of food aid.

ZANU PF supporters and office bearers continue to record high numbers of perpetrators. In the month of May ZPP recorded 261 ZANU PF perpetrators compared to 31 MDCT perpetrators and of these perpetrators 278 are men and 18 are women. These statistics reflect the stereotypical perception that men are aggressive and violent.. In the month of May ZPP recorded 248 male victims compared to 67 female victims giving an impression that politics is a male domain.

There are isolated cases of displacement of people in Mashonaland Central, Mashonaland East and Midlands. The Mashonaland Central case is based on non-payment for the labour services by the new farmer and the withdrawal of labour by the workers. Others cases are based on political intolerance.

FOOD AND OTHER FORMS OF AID VIOLATIONS

The incidents of food violations continue to decrease and this could be attributed to good harvest recorded throughout the country. However there are some drought prone areas where there is still dire need of food.

In Masvingo province the situation remains critical in Chivi, Mwenezi and Chiredzi, particularly the area affected by floods. Other areas are a bit better as people managed to harvest after the rains. In Chingwizi transit camp, food rations continue to drop; currently families are receiving 10kg mealie-meal, 1 kg nyemba (cow peas) and 1 bottle of cooking oil per month regardless of the size of the family. This has worsened the vulnerability of families and caused women to set up fruit and vegetable stalls for sale in unhygienic environment to supplement their income. Politicians no longer consider the situation in Chingwizi as a crisis and yet mere observation tells a story of imminent disaster.

In Matabeleland North province flood victims in Gariya and Butabubili Line in Tsholotsho South constituency are reported to be starving. This follows revelations that villagers in those areas last received food handouts in March from the Civil Protection Unit. It is reported that some families are now surviving through selling some of their livestock while some families are reported to have moved to neighbouring villages to get better livelihoods.

At Chidobe ward in Hwange West constituency villagers are also reported to be facing starvation. This is said to be due to poor harvests which were caused by the destruction of their crops by wild animals such as elephants.

In Bulawayo there is no food aid from non-government organisations and government agencies although there are communities that require food aid; Killarney Squatter Camp, Methodist Village, Cebestha Farm North Trenance and Hyde Park near Old Pumula are such communities in need of food aid.

Mashonaland East province experienced three incidents of food violation in Goromonzi South where MDC T supporters were denied food allocations after they refused to denounce their party. Generally the province had good harvest and there are sporadic food distribution points.

Mashonaland Central reported six cases of denied access to food relief based on one's political affiliation. The incidents happened in Mazowe Central where the victims who are MDCT supporters had refused to denounce their party.

In Mashonaland West there were no reports of food violations. This could be attributed to good harvest recorded in the province. There were no reports of food and other forms of aid distributed by government or any other organisation.

Matabeleland South province had no reports of food violations. The province received plenty of rains, most people have sufficient grain to last them a little while. However, some places had too much rain which destroyed what they had planted. NGOs that deal with relief continue to distribute food but only to specific groups such as the terminally ill.

Manicaland province recorded four cases of denied access to food based on political affiliation; the victims had refused to denounce their political party. The incidents happened in Mutasa Central and Chipinge West.
